

sauvie island center

FOOD, FARMING AND THE LAND

Farm Camp Internship

THROUGH OUR SUMMER CAMP PROGRAM, ELEMENTARY-AGE YOUTH LEARN ABOUT FARMING AND ITS RELATIONSHIP TO THE LAND THROUGH EXPLORATION OF COMPOST PILES, FARM FIELDS, AND NATIVE PLANT HABITATS. EACH DAY OF CAMP INCLUDES GAMES, CRAFTS, AND FARM AND GARDEN EXPLORATION. WE AIM TO NURTURE AN UNDERSTANDING AND APPRECIATION OF THE NATURAL AND HUMAN SYSTEMS THAT GROW FOOD BY TEACHING THROUGH HANDS-ON EXPLORATION.

15 DAYS ON THE FARM
8:30AM-3:30PM DAILY
JULY 28, 29 30 (TRAINING)
AUGUST 3-7 & 10-14 (CAMP)
AUGUST 18 & 20 (DEBRIEF)

The Sauvie Island Center (SIC) is a non-profit organization educating youth about food, farming and the land. Located on Topaz Farm on beautiful Sauvie Island just outside Portland, Oregon, SIC provides Portland area youth with educational field trips, summer camps, family programs, open spaces and a connection to the land.

Open to anyone 18 years or older interested in teaching youth (elementary aged) about food, farming and ecology • Comfortable working outdoors, in variable climatic conditions, lifting, digging, using hand tools • Positive, 'can do' attitude • Experience in outdoor education and/or organic gardening / farming practices preferred. • Must be able to pass a background check

To Apply:
Submit a cover letter, resume and contact info for 2 references.
Cover letter should address why you are interested in outdoor/agricultural education.

UPDATED
INFORMATION 7/1/20

AS AN INTERN YOU WILL:

- EXPERIENCE TEACHING OUTDOOR EDUCATION PROGRAMS WITH CHILDREN
- GAIN KNOWLEDGE OF PACIFIC NORTHWEST ECOSYSTEMS
- INCREASE UNDERSTANDING OF ORGANIC FARMING PRACTICES
- RECEIVE A STIPEND OF $500
- OPTIONAL: OBTAIN COLLEGE CREDIT (INTERN MUST ARRANGE WITH THEIR SCHOOL)

Send Application Materials to:
Aliesje King, Program Manager
aliesje@sauvieandcenter.org
503-341-8627
Please submit materials by 7/8/20

The Sauvie Island Center is committed to supporting diversity, equity, and inclusion among our staff, volunteers, and those we serve. People of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

PO Box 10422, Portland, OR 97296 | 503.341.8627 www.sauvieislandcenter.org