

SAUVIE ISLAND CENTER IS LOOKING FOR FARM FIELD TRIP LEADERS

The Sauvie Island Center seeks to equitably educate elementary school-aged children about food, farming and the land. Our place-based, hands-on educational program, which includes summer camps, farm field trips, school visits and community farm days, brings to life the interconnected nature of the food we eat, farms and our environment.

THE BASICS

Are you passionate about gardening, nature, or working outdoors with children? Consider volunteering with the Sauvie Island Center!

Volunteers lead groups of elementary school students (and their families) through interactive, hands-on, farm-based lessons on plant life cycles, pollination, soil science and more. Volunteer Farm Field Trip Leaders are essential to the success of our program!

A trip to the Sauvie Island Center is a rich and unique opportunity for Portland area youth and families to visit and explore at Topaz Farm.

As a Sauvie Island Center volunteer you will:

- Gain experience in environmental education and gardening.
- Spend your days outside on beautiful Sauvie Island.
- Become a member of a dynamic and energetic team.
- Taste the rainbow in the Grow Lunch Garden at Topaz Farm.
- Plant the seeds of knowledge and stewardship in local youth.
