

World Food Tour in Downtown Portland, Oregon

Have you ever wanted to travel the world? One of the best ways to start to connect with different parts of the world is through their food. Folks have moved to Portland from all over the world and have brought their food traditions with them. We put together a scavenger hunt of some tasty treats that represent almost all the continents of the globe. See if you can get around the world with these foods. These foods cover a 2 mile radius in the downtown region of Portland. PSU capstone partner Raul found many of these and they were his favorite places to stop and eat. You can take a loop and see the different food stops even if you don't get a chance to taste them all.

Check out the GOOGLE MAPS to see the full round and see a little bit about each location here below.

Can you name all of the countries represented? What continents did we make it through on this international food walk ?
